

Liberal Leadership Academy Europe: Session II

Roma, Italy | 1-4 October, 2020

ABOUT THE EVENT

The Liberal Leadership Academy Europe is a dedicated academy for training politically oriented, high potential and talented youth. The academy will be offering one course broken down into four modules, across multiple weekends, wherein a carefully selected group of highly qualified individuals will be trained on different personal and political skills that prepare participants for successful political careers in the 21st century. The Academy's curriculum offers teachings on the most modern and effective political strategies to date, as well as equipping participants with the tools to build on their leadership skills. Internationally recognised expert trainers follow talents throughout the process, ensuring the highest quality supervision and development support.
